

Women in Non-Traditional Careers Open House

Thursday, May 3, 2018 | 3-7 p.m.
Harford Community College, Edgewood Hall

- Networking Opportunities
- Industry Representatives
- Tours of Edgewood Hall Workforce Labs
- Industry Speakers

Heavy hors d'oeuvres and refreshments will be served.

INFORMATION: 443-412-2440 or training@harford.edu.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Stephanie Hau

President and CEO of Chesapeake Environmental Management, Inc.

PRESENTATION AT 5:30

"How to Make a Life, Not Just a Living: Choosing a Career Based on Your Talents"

Stephanie Novak Hau is the President & CEO of CEM, a professional scientific and engineering firm focused on private and public infrastructure. Ms. Hau founded CEM almost 25 years ago with the simple idea of "Applying Practical Science to Improve Communities." CEM has received the Harford Award and a Top 100 Minority Business Enterprise Award, recognizing its growth and philanthropy. Ms. Hau has been recognized for her business leadership, being named SBA Small Business Person of the Year, one of Maryland's Top 100 Women, and an ATHENA Award recipient.

RONN BLANEY

Training Director, Harford County Electrical Contractors Association and Apprenticeship Program

"Women in Apprenticeships"

PRESENTATION AT 3:30

PAT HOGAN

Independent Consultant

"Exploring the Possibilities"

From non-traditional careers to small business ownership . . . what is your life path?

PRESENTATION AT 4:00

SUSIE COMER

Owner/President/Treasurer of Comer Construction, Inc.

"The Road to Success is Always Under Construction"

PRESENTATION AT 4:30

INDUSTRIES/OCCUPATIONS REPRESENTED

Industry representatives will be available.

Applied Engineering
IT/Programming and Cybersecurity
CADD
HVAC

Commercial Truck Driver
Manufacturing
Drone Technology
Paramedic/EMT
Electrical

Sheriff's Academy
Heavy Equipment Operator
Solar Panel Installation
Home Inspection
Theater Technology

