

As a 100% employee owned company, our success is our employee's success. We take pride in bringing each of our construction projects to an efficient and profitable conclusion. McLean is fortunate to employ many individuals who are leaders in the construction industry. Many of those same employees were initially hired as laborers. Through our commitment, continued education, and acknowledgement of outstanding performance, they have been able to realize their full potential.

Come join a company that can offer you more McLean Contracting Company!
