

Hungry Harvest is hiring urgently! We are hiring for production, logistics, procurement, and drivers. We are slammed with demand and are looking for mission-driven individuals to join our wonderful team. If you know anyone out of work - please send this to them so they can apply. We have both part time and full time positions available. Driving for Hungry Harvest is the most flexible position we offer for those looking from the service industry impacted by the shutdowns. Please share!
